The Center for Iberian & Latin American Studies

- Film Screening, Roundtable, Picture Exhibition
  2nd Spanish Republic (1931-1936): Feelings, views and memories

Date: Thursday, April 12, 2012  Time: 3-7 pm
Place: Weaver Room in the Copley International Conference Center, Institute of the Americas Complex, UCSD

April 14th is the 71st anniversary of the 2nd Spanish Republic (1931-1936). The objective is to propose a reflection on the political, social and cultural impact of that period in the history of Spain.

3:00 PM-Film screening: La lengua de las mariposas; 1999 Spanish film directed by José Luis Cuerda. The film tells the story about one primary school in a Spanish village and the social relations during the last days of the Second Republic.

4:30 PM-Round Table: The 2nd Republic, ¿A frustrated citizenship model? The discussion will be with Luis Martín-Cabrera, Professor of Literature at UCSD, Pamela Radcliff, Chair of the History Department at UCSD, and Joseba Arregui, Visiting Scholar at CILAS and former Minister of Culture of the Basque Government. The table will be moderated by Jorge Resina, a Spanish journalist and political scientist.

6:00 PM-Photograph and Drawing Exhibition: The Fall of the 2nd Republic. An infancy in exile. The Exhibition is provided by the UCSD Mandeville Special Collections Library.

A Spanish appetizer will be served.