SPAIN AT THE CROSSROADS: IMPERIAL NOSTALGIA OR MODERN COLONIALISM?

Alda Blanco, Professor of Spanish studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, received her Ph.D. at UCSD in 1983. Blanco is currently writing a book entitled "Writing the Spanish Empire: Cultural Sites of Imperial Consciousness in XIXth-Century Spain". Her work on gender and Spanish women's literature has produced "Escriptores virtuosas: narradoras de la domesticidad en la España isabelina" (2001). She has also devoted many years to the study of María Martínez Sierra, one of Spain's most forgotten writers and feminist thinkers.
