The Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies invites you to meet IPS Fellow Saul Landau. He will be discussing his film titled: WE DON'T PLAY GOLF HERE - and other stories of globalization. Using Mexico as an example of what the Third World has experienced, filmmaker Saul Landau shows how foreign investments in export factories distort both the culture and environment. Its exquisite photography, elegant editing, and original music probe the essence of the new economic disorder.

Saul Landau is an internationally-known scholar, author, commentator, and filmmaker on foreign and domestic policy issues. Landau has produced over forty films on social, political and historical issues, and worldwide human rights, for which he won the Letelier-Moffitt Human Rights Award, the George Polk Award for Investigative Reporting, and the First Amendment Award.

When: Thursday, October 11, 2007 from 3:30-6:00 p.m.

Where: Weaver Center, IOA, UCSD Campus

Please note the room location and time change to the usual CILAS Lecture Series.

This event is co-sponsored by CILAS and the Chicano/a-Latino/a Arts and Humanities (CLAH) http://minors.ucsd.edu/clah/clah_portal/index.htm

For more information call (858) 534-6050.

If you need driving directions, please visit the CILAS webpage http://cilas.ucsd.edu