The Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies cordially invites you to attend a special book presentation by

SAMUEL SCHMIDT

En La Mira: El Chiste Político en México

Political Humor in Mexico: From Cortez to Calderón

When: Friday, April 13, 2007 | 12:30-2:00 PM
Where: Weaver Center | Institute of the Americas
This is a brown bag lunch event. Please bring your lunch.

Samuel Schmidt is currently a Professor of Social Sciences at the Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez and the Director of North American Studies at the Colegio de Chihuahua. He is also the Associate Director of the journal Araucaria and the Editor of the weekly El Reto. Schmidt was the Former Director for the Center for Interamerican and Border Studies at the University of Texas at El Paso. He is the author of over twenty books exploring the relationship between Mexican society and the State.

This event is co-sponsored by the Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies and Cinewest Productions.

For additional information call (858) 534-6050.

Need driving directions? See the CILAS webpage http://cilas.ucsd.edu/