

The Center for Iberian & Latin American Studies

CILAS Graduate Symposium

Presentations given by Tinker Field Research Grant Recipients

Thursday, February 18, 2016

10 AM-1:30 PM, Deutz Room in the Copley International
Conference Center, Institute of the Americas Complex, UCSD

Lunch 11:30 AM to 12 PM

Panel 1 Moderator: Matthew Vitz, Assistant Professor Time 10-11:30 AM

Amie Campos, History, Field Research conducted in Chile

“Cartographic Processes in the Araucania Region (1883-1889)”

James Deavenport, History, Field Research conducted in Colombia

“Encountering the State: Local, Regional, and Global Networks from the End of the Colonial Period to the Rise of the Nation State (1780-1830)”

Kevan Antonio Aguilar, History, Field Research conducted in Mexico

“Revolutionary Encounters: Mexican Radicals and Spanish Exiles in Post-Revolutionary Mexico, 1917-1975”

Paloma Checa Gismero, Visual Arts, Field Research conducted in Cuba

“Two socially engaged art projects in the 12th Biennial de La Habana: bridging the global art biennial with local civil society”

Panel 2 Moderator: Shelley Streeby, Professor Time 12-1:30 PM

Andrew Janusz, Political Science, Field Research conducted in Brazil

“Racial Representation and Policy Outcomes in Brazil”

Maria Celleri, Ethnic Studies, Field Research conducted in Ecuador

“Urban Re-structuring in the Era of Neoliberalism: A Historical Analysis of the Formation of Quito at the End of the 20th Century”