

The Center for Iberian & Latin American Studies

CILAS Graduate Symposium

Presentations given by Tinker Field Research Grant Recipients with the generous support of the Graduate Division

Thursday, May 12, 2016

10 AM-3:30 PM, Deutz Room and CILAS Library, Institute of the Americas Complex, UCSD
Lunch 11:30 AM to 12 PM

●Panel 1 Moderator: Curtis Marez, Associate Professor/Chair Deutz Room Time 10-11:30 AM

Christina Green, Ethnic Studies, Journey to Banana Land: Race and Gender in Afro-Caribbean Labor Migration to Honduras and the United States

Emily Little, Psychology, Examining maternal responsiveness to infant cues during breastfeeding in Guatemala

Natalie Novick, Sociology, Startup Chile Five Years On: International Entrepreneurs and the Attraction of Chilecon Valley

●Panel 2 Moderator: Christine Hunefeldt, Professor CILAS Library Time 12-1:30 PM

Gabriela López, LAS, Popular Education, Gender and Solidarity: From housekeepers to educators

The experience of empowerment through the teaching of ten Ecuadorean indigenous women

Soffia Lana, LAS, Women surviving in and out prison in Quito: Weaving alternative lives through the sale of drugs

Weijun Yuan, LAS, State Responses and Protest Tactics: The Case of the Chilean Student Movements (2011–2015)

●Panel 3 Moderator: Margaret Schoeninger, Professor Deutz Room Time 12-1:30 PM

Christopher Méndez Ramírez, Ethnic Studies, The New Military Urbanism in Chiapas:

Urban Security Regimes, Migrant Detentions, and the Militarization of the Southern Mexican Border

Giacomo Gaggio, Anthropology, Food and Identity in the Tiwanaku State: a view from the lowland site of Rio Muerto, Moquegua, Peru

Susana Aguilera, LAS, "Alternative Security: Autonomous Indigenous Policing in Cherán, Michoacán"

●Panel 4 Moderator: Nancy Postero, Associate Professor Deutz Room Time 2-3:30 PM

Amy Kennemore, Anthropology, "Interrogating 'lo comunitario': Activist and Collaborative Research in the Rural Highlands of Bolivia

Alexia Arani, Anthropology, "We're All the Same": Affect, Unity, and the Politics of Empathy in a Study Abroad Semester

Marianinna Villavicencio, Anthropology, The Road towards Superación: the Role of Development in Constructing and Mediating an Indigenous Subjectivities in Guatemala

Nicole Letourneau, Anthropology, My Country Needs a Ronald Reagan": Inequality and Invisibility in Santiago, Chile.

●Panel 5 Moderator: Luis Alvarez, Associate Professor CILAS Library Time 2-3:30 PM

Johnathan Abreu, History, Frontiers beyond Abolition: Fugitive Slave Communities in Pará and Maranhão Brazil

Jorge Ramirez, History, Coffee and Violence: Oaxaca's Triqui Community in Post-Revolutionary Mexico

Nikola Bulajic, LAS, Céu do Mapiá - Social Organization and the Role of Ayahuasca in the Amazonian Santo Daime Community

Troy Kokinis, History, The Comisión de Solidaridad and Biblioteca Popular Jose Ingenieros: A Story of an Anarchist Archive/"Safe House" during Dirty War-era Buenos Aires, Argentina, 1973-85

● CILAS website <http://cilas.ucsd.edu/>