

The Center for Iberian & Latin American Studies

CILAS Graduate Symposium

Presentations given by Tinker Field Research Grant Recipients

Thursday, February 9, 2017

10 AM-2:30 PM, Deutz Room in the Copley International
Conference Center, Institute of the Americas Complex, UCSD

● PANEL 1 MODERATOR DAVID E. PEDERSEN, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR TIME 10-11:30 AM

“A New Framework for Understanding Political Engagement Among the Post-Dictatorship Generation in Chile”
Boots, Madelyn-Anthropology PhD Student

“Nuka Sumak Chagra, 'My Beautiful Garden': The Ontological Foundations of Agrarian Politics among Kichwa-speaking Peoples in the Ecuadorian Amazon”
Ramirez, Belinda-Anthropology PhD Student

● PANEL 2 MODERATOR: DAVID MARES, CILAS DIRECTOR, DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, AND INSTITUTE OF THE AMERICAS CHAIR FOR INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS.
TIME: 1 TO 2:30PM

“Distribution of Rents from Copper in Chile and its Effects on Accountability”
Baragwanath-Vogel, Kathryn-Political Science PhD Student

“The Racial Dimension of Brazilian Elections”
Janusz, Andrew-Political Science PhD Student

“Shaping Good Women and Productive Citizens: Anti-Trafficking Care Work and Social Reproductive Labor in Baja California, Mexico”
Lodermeier, Vanessa –Anthropology PhD Student

● CILAS website <http://cilas.ucsd.edu/>