

CILAS Conference: Globalization from Below

May 28-29, 2009
University of California, San Diego

Individual Paper Proposal Instruction and Form

The deadline for submitting the Individual Proposal Form (page 2 of this document) in addition to a 200 word abstract and a brief curriculum vitae is Wednesday, April 15, 2009.

Guidelines:

- After filling in this form, please save the file and send it as an attached document to the following e-mail address: jpezzoli@ucsd.edu
- The proposal selection process is based on a peer-reviewed evaluation of proposals conducted by the conference's Program Committee.
- Please fill in the form carefully. This information goes directly into the registration database, mailing list, program, and publication of abstracts, and should be submitted in publishable form.
- The abstract must not exceed 200 words. The abstracts of confirmed conference participants will be published at the time of the conference.
- The institutional affiliation you indicate here will be listed in the program and on the name tag, which you will receive at registration.
- Be sure to provide your email address and the other contact information to allow the organizers to send notification of acceptance and contact you throughout the time until the conference. If your paper is accepted, it will be assigned by the Program Committee to an appropriate panel. You will be informed via email about the panel's title and the email addresses of the panel's chair and discussant, who should receive a copy of your paper by Tuesday, May 5, 2009.
- In general, paper presentations will be limited to 20 minutes.
- If your presentation requires audio-visual equipment, please make sure to request the equipment in your proposal.
- You will be notified on Monday, March 30, 2009 if your proposal has been accepted. Once notified, you will need to register by Wednesday, April 15, 2009.
