Latin American Governments Facing the COVID Pandemic: A Stock-Taking

Wednesday, January 27, 2021
12-1:30 via Zoom

The COVID pandemic has ravaged Latin America. As in other parts of the world, government responses have varied dramatically in their design and effectiveness. A panel of specialists will discuss policies and outcomes in different countries of the region.

Introductory Remarks
Carlos H. Waisman, UCSD, CILAS Associate Director.

Brazil
Julian Borba, Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina, Brazil.

Chile
Teresita Rocha Jiménez, Universidad Mayor, Santiago, Chile.

Mexico
David Mares, UCSD, CILAS Director.